Talent Release Form

Cast and Crew Release

I accept all of the conditions and provisions of the following release form covering my work on the production “Running For Something”.

Ownership

I assign to the production company the ownership and all rights to use, exhibit, distribute, assign, license, and otherwise promote the products of my work on the production. I also waive any and all claims to copyright, patent, or other ownership of my work products on the productions.

I agree to keep confidential all written, creative, technical and financial detail of the production unless authorized or requested by the production company to disclose such information.

Liability

I indemnify the production company, the owners of any locations used, and the owners of any uninsured equipment against any claims and demands of personal injury, damage to property, and death resulting from my work on the production.

I understand that I am responsible for all necessary personal injury, death, and liability insurances, and am responsible for any damage caused by my actions and by my personal property used during my work on the productions.

I accept full responsibility for all personal risks during my work on the production.

Compensation

Unless it is otherwise stated, I am volunteering my services for the productions and will receive no monetary compensation. I understand that I will receive credit under the following name in the screen credits of the completed production:
